SUPPLEMENT TO THE CLASS' OBJECTION TO THE MAGISTRATE'S
SEPTEMBER 20, 2006 ORDER

On October 4, 2006, the Class filed its objection to Magistrate Judge Nan R. Nolan's Order entered on September 20, 2006 regarding the counting of interrogatories. As indicated in the Class' supporting brief, the Class had intended to file a motion for reconsideration of this issue with the Magistrate Judge, but was orally instructed at a hearing on October 4, 2006 to file an objection with this Court. As a result of that instruction, the Class had to convert its motion for reconsideration into an objection in a few hours. In that process, the Class did not have time to include a chart summarizing how the Class counted the defendants' interrogatories. The Class therefore supplements its October 4, 2006 Objection with the chart attached hereto as Exhibit A. This chart, which the Class did not intend to provide to the Magistrate Judge due to her greater familiarity with these issues, is in the nature of a demonstrative exhibit as a further aid for the Court's understanding and analysis.
